

The Prayer for a Successful Business

No matter what others may say, think, or do, I know that I am a success now. I radiate joy and am filled with faith, hope and expectancy. I refuse to think of failure or to doubt my own power, because I am depending on the Principle of Life Itself for all that I shall ever need.

I know that there comes to my attention everything that I need in order to project my business in every direction with the certainty of success. I see this expansion and pray that it may bless everyone who contacts it; that I may serve all who come near me; that all who know me shall feel my love and friendship and shall sense a warmth and color within me. I pray that everyone who touches my business in any way shall be uplifted and satisfied.

I bless and praise everyone who is in any way connected with my business. I draw them to me with the irresistible charm of Divine Union. I serve them and am served by them. The reciprocal action of Love prospers those I serve as well as me. I am success, happiness and fulfillment.

- Ernest Holmes